Generate 2011: The Annual Exhibition of Final Year Associates Exhibition runs from 10 December 2011 - 12 February 2012

Generate 2011 is the annual exhibition of work by the dedicated emerging artists and designers who have just completed JamFactory's intensive two-year Associate training program.

The Associates are James Edwards and Maria Chatzinikolaki from the Ceramics Studio, Adam Cantwell and Samantha Bosward from the Furniture Design Studio, Jessamy Pollock from the Metal Design Studio and Andrea Fiebig, Kristel Britcher, Madeline Prowd and Katherine Plunkard from the Glass Studio.

JamFactory is a unique cultural organisation promoting good design and fine craftsmanship through its widely acclaimed studios, galleries and shops. It is an iconic institution within South Australia and is recognised nationally and internationally as a centre for excellence.

"For almost 40 years JamFactory has been presenting outstanding exhibitions and public programs, nurturing the careers of talented artists, craftspeople and designers and supporting the incomes of entrepreneurial designer-makers." says Brian Parkes, JamFactory Chief Executive Officer.

JamFactory's training program has ensured that South Australia holds a position as a recognised leader in the development of Australian craft and design and this exhibition brings together a showcase of diverse and exciting new works.

"Generate represents the culmination of the Associates intensive two years in the studio, producing work of an extremely high level across the diverse areas of jewellery, ceramics, furniture and glass." says Margaret Hancock Davis, JamFactory Curator/Exhibitions Manager.

A catalogue will be produced to accompany the exhibition which runs until 10 February 2012.

Exhibition Opening: Friday 9 December 2011
