Brief: JAMFACTORY

Le Bijou

Local jewellery designer Hannah Carlyle will soon be showing her newest collection Le Bijou, inspired by Bakelite jewellery and the Art Deco period, at the Jam Factory. Hannah explains her process as “a flirtation with chance” and, through only exerting partial control over the process, is unable to predict the final outcome of each piece. This explains why her pieces are strangely quirky, yet inexplicably beautiful. Make sure you check out Le Bijou at the Jam Factory from Thu Nov 3 until Sun Nov 27, and visit her Facebook page.
